

Please don't allow the 'No Call" list to be ended by the banking industry or any other parties that think nothing of our concerns for a quiet life free from the thoughtlessness of these people. If we want some service or product, we are perfectly able to phone the business or service, or bank when or if we want to. I never could understand the need to have 'cold' calls to promote a business. Please leave this needed policy alone.